Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the housing lottery for the waitlist at Bishop Mugavero Senior Apartments, located in Brooklyn, NY. The waitlist generated from this mailing will be used to fill future vacancies. You are receiving this application because you previously expressed interest in an affordable apartment at this site. If you are no longer interested, please disregard this mailing.

Tenants pay their own electricity, and rents are subsidized by the US Department of Housing and Urban Development. Rents are determined based on the household's adjusted gross income.

Maximum Gross Income limits (50% AMI)

- Household of One: $54,350
- Household of Two: $62,150

Eligibility for admission to this HUD subsidized property is limited to the following. Note that there are additional eligibility criteria which will be reviewed when the application is initially reviewed and/or at a housing interview.

- A single person 62 years of age or older
- A household of two household members, where the head of household or spouse is 62 years of age or older

In accordance with NYC HDC regulations, household assets may not exceed $80,040.

How to apply?

Please complete the attached housing application and mail to "Bishop Mugavero Senior Apartments C/O POP Management Corporation P.O. Box 25050 Brooklyn, NY, 11201-5050. Do not send more than one completed application. Do not give brokers or application fees to anyone in connections with the obtaining, preparing or filing of this application for housing.

When is the deadline?

Applications must be postmarked by September 17, 2024. Applications postmarked after this date will not be considered for the waitlist.

What happens after submitting an application?

Only the first 500 randomly selected applications will be assigned an ID number and added to the waitlist. Application 501 and beyond will not be notified or added to the waitlist.

Any blanks on the application will delay the processing of your application. When vacancies occur, Property Management will reach out to eligible candidates from the waitlist to conduct interviews. You will be asked to bring documents that verify identity of members of your household as well as your household's income, assets, and qualifying expenses. Additionally, applicants must pass a credit and criminal background check.

Please note that at no time in the process are you guaranteed an apartment until you have signed a lease and received your keys. You may keep this cover sheet for future reference.

Sincerely,

Progress of Peoples Management Corporation

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.
